

Financial Confessions

The Lord is my Shepherd
I shall not want. (Ps. 23:1)
I seek His kingdom and His righteousness first.
And He provides for all my needs. (Mt. 6:33)
Because He is faithful to His word, (2 Cor. 1:20)
I have given and it is given to me
good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over. (Lk. 6:38)
I have more than I need. (2 Cor. 9:8)
I owe no one anything but to love. (Rom. 13:8)
I lend and do not borrow. (Deut. 28:12)
I have loaned money to the Lord by giving to the poor, and He is repaying me. (Pr. 19:17)
I give to the poor; therefore, I do not lack. (Pr. 28:27)
Because I am a sower, God will supply seed for me to sow. (2 Cor. 9:10)
God gives me the power to get wealth
so that I can advance His kingdom. (Deut. 8:18)
I reap what I have sown, I am not weary in doing good,
and I will reap because I won't faint. (Gal. 6:9)
The gifts I give are a sweet smelling sacrifice and are well pleasing to the Lord.
Therefore, He supplies all of my need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus. (Phil. 4:17-19)
I sow bountifully and I reap bountifully. (2 Cor. 9:6)
I have all grace for all sufficiency in all things, and I have an abundance for every good work. (2 Cor. 9:8)
I am enriched in everything, so I give liberally. (2 Cor. 9:11)
Jesus said that when I speak to the mountain
it will be removed and cast into the sea, (Mk. 11:23)
Because of this I command money to come into my possession in the Name and authority of Jesus.
I bind every resistance to financial abundance.
I command every bill to be paid in full
and I command the overflow to come.
I speak favor into my life and occupation
and I bind any resistance to anyone doing business with me.
I release provision in the name of Jesus. (Matt. 18:18)
I believe that God is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all I can ask or think according to the power that works in me. (Eph. 3:20)
