Accusing Those Who Disagree

Dear Christian Brothers and Sisters,

Will you please stop accusing your brothers and sisters of barely being believers just because they don't agree with your political point of view?

Jesus gave us ONE, just one commandment and that is to love each other as He loved us.

Who is called the "accuser of the brethren"? You know. So, stop speaking for him.

Perhaps you don't understand how a believer in Jesus could possibly vote the way he/she did. Ok. Fine. But when you perpetuate hate and sew discord, you fail Christ.

2 John 4:7-8

Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God, and everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. He who does not love, does not know God for God is love.

Romans 14:4

Who are you to judge another man's servant? To his own master he stands or falls. Indeed, he will be made to stand, for God is able to make him stand.

Try to understand other people's viewpoints instead of foolishly assuming someone is evil because they see things differently. Jesus told us to pray for our enemies and to do good to those who spitefully accuse us. Certainly, a brother in sister in Christ isn't an enemy. Since we are to treat an enemy with kindness, of course we should extend similar kindness to a brother or sister. Pray for them if you think they are in error. Do good to them. Trust me, you will win no one to your side by accusing them and treating them with disdain.

"Love one another as I have loved you." Just do it.
