

Relationship Tip of the Day

Do As YOU Are Told

Dear Friends,

The Bible tells men to love their wives, and it tells wives to respect their husbands, but it doesn't tell men to demand respect from their wives. Nor does it tell wives to demand love from their husbands.

You see, love and respect are gifts we give willingly to our spouses, not something we obligate each other to do.

The command to love each other as Jesus loved us is an unmerited, sacrificial love expressed in words and deeds.

Love and respect each other and you will enjoy each other more.

Love,

50 Years and Counting