So Much More

A song by C. D. Hildebrand 2009

Lord, I place myself before You as a living sacrifice
Not knowing what the future has in store.
Yet there's one thing taught me
As I've traveled through this life.
Your plans for me are always so much more.

More than I ask, more than I need
More than my mind could ever think,
Far above anything I can dream
So much love, abounding grace,
Endless power in my life
Your plans for me are always so much more.

Now, Lord I stand before You with confidence and joy
Knowing that Your promises true.
Amazed at all You're doing and
All that You have done
And all the things You still have in store.

Plans of hope, plans of peace
Plans to prosper all I do
Far above anything I can dream
So much love, abounding grace
Endless power in my life
Your plans for me are always so much more.

Refrain:
So much more! So much more!
More than I could ever ask or even dream
So much more! So much more!
Your plans for me are always so much more.

More than I ask, more than I need
More than my mind could ever think
Far above anything I can dream.
So much love, abounding grace,
Endless power in my life
Your plans for me are always so much more

Because Your love for me is always so much more
Your plans for me are always so much more.
